The Elgin Grist Mill has started up for the season.

Dr. Gamble was down to Lawton Friday, on business.

The FARMERS' CHAMPION is here to stay. Subscribe for it.

Dr. Gamble was a business visitor at the county seat Monday.

Mrs. R. M. Young and Miss Alta Hoffer were Lawton visitors Wednesday.

G. B. Stackhouse, our tonsorial artist, is on the sick list, with acute indigestion.

George Pierce, of Fletcher, is visiting with C. M. Stackhouse and family this week.

Mrs. J. P. Kennemur was a pleasant caller at the editorial mansion Wednesday afternoon.

From what we can learn, we are led to believe that about two thirds of the cotton has been picked.

Don't fail to see those dishes at the Old Reliable, they are dandies and are being given away—too. Adv't.

Jim Fuston, of Lawton, was here Monday and Tuesday, looking after the interests of his farm just east of town.

Mrs. C. M. Stackhouse returned Monday evening from Fletcher where she has been visiting with her mother a couple of weeks.

Our two elevators are running full capacity now days. This speaks well for the grain production of the country this season.

Mr. Thurman has moved in from the country, and occupies the Gillispie property. He came in to send his children to our fine school this winter.

Walter Clark wishes us to thank the many kind friends and neighbors who did all in their power for Mrs. Clark in her late illness.

Mrs. S. E. Creamer, and daughter, Jessie, returned home Tuesday from Kansas, where they have been visiting a son and brother.

Mrs. T. R. Bennett and son Monta, and Miss Linda Crawford went down to Lawton this morning, combining business and pleasure.

R. B. Lasley, our esteemed mail carrier on route No. 2, is off on a vacation, visiting with his mother in Missouri. He left Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Polly C. Ryan, formerly of Nebraska, is here for the purpose of making her future home with her daughter, Mrs. H. F. Shirk, of the Elgin post office.

M. F. Richardson has again moved back from Kansas. He has moved out on his farm, some seven miles southeast of town, and we trust he is here this time to stay.

J. A. West and wife, of Washington, arrived Wednesday to visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. West, a few weeks. They stopped at El Reno a few days to visit with one of his sisters.

A corps of engineers, some sixteen in number, will be engaged in surveying the Apache pasture lands, immediately southwest of town, next week, and have engaged board and lodging at Hotel Elgin.

C. W. Compton and Geo. Coffin was in Lawton Tuesday, visiting the Board of County Commissioners, in regard to some bridges in Chandler township. We will likely get one across Tony creek, and one across Rock creek. Both are needed badly.

F. C. Green and a gentleman by the name of Perry, who live five miles south of Sterling, were in Elgin Tuesday with four bales of cotton. This goes to show that Elgin is a good cotton market. Come on gentleman, we can accommodate you with the best prices the market can afford. Our buyers are a lively bunch.

W. H. Higgins, of four miles east of town, made us a pleasant call this afternoon. He will leave for the eastern part of the State Monday or Tuesday.

If you know any news, tell it to us. We want to publish everything that is news and would appreciate it if our friends would tell us anything in the news line.

A. Kaubena, of Lawton, was a pleasant caller at our editorial den this afternoon. He was accompanied by A. L. McPherson, the esteemed President of the Bank of Elgin.

Mrs. Walter Clark died in child birth Thursday afternoon. Both mother and child were buried in the same coffin Friday afternoon. This was a most pitiful death. The mother was a mere child herself, being only fifteen years of age. Her maiden name was Lena Griffin, and she was married to Walter Clark almost two years ago. Her mother has been dead for years. Cruel, cruel earthly fate! We pray that it may be brighter on the other shore. The bereaved husband has the deep sympathy of the entire community.

J. T. Whitwell of 5 miles southeast of Elgin, was in town Saturday. After meeting Mr. Harrison on the street and subscribing for the paper, he glanced at the editor's name and found him to be the man who located him on a good quarter section of land, 4 miles east of Sterling. He hastily found his way to the editorial den to renew pleasant acquaintances and talk over the early days.

Pilot Lodge A. F. & A. M. was invited to visit Fletcher Lodge on Tuesday night, when they put on the third degree. Those attending were Dr. Gamble, Tom Richardson, E. B. Gregory, W. W. Brunskill, Ben Hamilton, W. D. Pugh and L. C. Coffin, all from Pilot Lodge. Apache was also represented by several of the Masonic brethren. Fletcher has a fine bunch of Masons, and good entertainers. They showed the boys a good time, had plenty of hash, and smoke. The boys can put the work on in good shape, and are to be congratulated on their proficiency. The lodge here expects to be able to return the compliment in the near future.
